Readings for Sunday Christ the King November 26, 2017

Ez 34:11-12, 15-17/Ps 23:1-3, 5-6/1 Cor 15:20-26, 28/Mt 25:31-46

From the Pastor's Desk

There is a popular picture out there of an old sailing ship with the saying underneath, 'A ship in the harbor is safe—but that is not what ships are built for.' A boat's true calling is not a passive one! Of course, there are risks; but most sailors take the risks because the pay-off of making the effort is huge: to feel fully alive!

Today's gospel of the lazy servant who didn't invest the Master's money makes people squirm. Here I'm doing my best to keep what's been given to me safe and sound, and the angry Master says, 'Why didn't you invest it?' Wow—can't I please anybody?

The Master is really attacking the common trap of fearing to risk. God gives us gifts, but we call them 'ours'—and we start protecting 'our' things...from 'our' toys, to 'our' house, to 'our' kids. We build a life and get settled, and we soon quit taking our ship out of safe harbor. But—and this is a hard saying these days—the gifts God has given us belong to the world.

One family of 10 ran a small store. But they were never so focused on their own family that they didn't notice and help other poor families with free food or extended credit when needed. Another family limited sports so they could work at the homeless shelter one night a week. The daughter helped cook, the son sat and talked to the homeless men. These families remained conscious and alert to the state of the world around them—they took their ships out of harbor to help strangers. What a life lesson!

From age 9 to 90, we have to ask the hard question, 'Am I in a comfortable rut?' Look around to see if the grieving, the poor, the lonely or homeless need us—because we need them to help us go beyond security, into the open seas of love. 'A ship in the harbor is safe—but that is not what ships are built for.'

Remember...on Sunday we will be collecting turkeys from 7am to 1pm on the Rectory side of the church for our Parish Thanksgiving Turkey Drive. Please help us help the hungry.

We invite all parishioners to join us for our 42nd Annual New Milford Community Interfaith Thanksgiving which will be celebrated next Sunday, November 19th, at 4pm at New Milford Presbyterian Church on River Road. Please, come and join with our community leaders and our brothers and sisters from New Milford Presbyterian Church, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, and Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, as we offer this special 'Thank You' to God for his many blessings on our community. You are invited to bring donations of non-perishable food donations for the New Milford Good Will Fund directly to the celebration.

Thursday is Thanksgiving Day. Please join us as we gather for Mass at 8:30am to give thanks to God the giver of all good gifts! The Rectory and Religious Education offices will be closed on Thanksgiving Day and the following Friday.

Transfiguration students learning STEM
(Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math)

6th grader Uma Nath recently completed an at home project, creating a fan from recyclable materials, a battery, motor and some electrical wires. She shared her work with her fellow 6th graders as well as the lower school grades. We applaud her as we do all our students as they explore and create with enthusiasm.

Upcoming events:

Our 10th annual “Celebrating the Arts” Barnes & Noble Bookfair is scheduled for Saturday, Dec 2 at the Barnes & Noble Paramus located at 765 NJ-17 South. Students will be displaying and performing skills they have developed for family, friends, and store shoppers. Transfiguration Academy earns a percentage of all purchases made using the Transfiguration Academy name at checkout.

Registration is ongoing:

Parents wishing to provide their children with a quality Catholic education and those looking for alternatives to public school are encouraged to consider Transfiguration Academy. To learn more about our academic, athletic, and fine arts curriculum or to schedule a tour of our Academy, located at 10 Bradley Ave in Bergenfield, please email principal@transfigurationacademy.org or call the school office at 201-384-3627. Transfiguration Academy is an investment in your child's future and much more affordable than you would expect. Transfiguration Academy: Strengthening faith, Enlightening minds, and Transforming hearts...one student at a time.

Reconciliation: Pardon and Peace:

This week children preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, they are learning about the rite of the sacrament. This wee the children will discuss contrition, confession, penance, and absolution. All parishioners are invited to think about how important the Sacrament of Reconciliation is in our own lives as we seek “pardon and peace” in the words of absolution. Please continue to keep these children in your prayers.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Please note the change in our hours for classes this school year.

SHARE YOUR JOY at CHRISTMAS

Catholic Charities' Help A Family Project provides a unique and personal opportunity for an individual or family to help critically needy families in the Newark Archdiocese who would not have Christmas without some outside support. Donors are asked to provide 2-3 age appropriate gifts and grocery store gift cards for their selected family. For more information, please call (973) 266-7966.

O God of all things in heaven and on earth,
 you give all your people in the world the gift of life,
 the gift of family, the gift of work, and the gift of rest.
 On this, our national day of Thanksgiving,
 we turn all our thoughts to you, from whom all blessings flow.
 Bless all our work, our friends, and our families both near and far.
 We humbly ask for the ability to continue our work for your kingdom and the ability to gather freely to worship you without fear.
 We ask you to give our years ahead your blessing and protection.
 We ask all this through Christ the Lord, your Son and our brother.
 Amen.

ANY EASY WAY YOU CAN HELP THOSE IN NEED – BECOME A VOLUNTEER BAKER!

Every other month the Service Ministry of Ascension visits the Hackensack shelter to feed dinner to those in need. We always bring with us home-baked goods, which are a big hit with the clients. As we normally feed up to 150 people, we need help from volunteer bakers. All you need to do is to bake a cake, pie, brownies, cupcakes or cookies and drop them off at the rectory by 2 pm on the day of our serving. If a daytime drop is not possible, they can be dropped off the night before. (If you cannot bake, we will also accept store bought goods!)

Our next date is on Thursday, December 14th.

We could sure use your help.
Thank you in advance for supporting our very important ministry!

The Rectory & Religious Education Offices will be closed Thursday, November 23rd. & Friday, November 24th. In observance of the Thanksgiving Holiday.
"As a family of faith and love, we give You thanks Oh Lord."
